Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Craig Miller began his career in 1976 as a Job Service Representative in the Pierre office, and, after 34 years of faithful service, will retire on January 1, 2010; and,

Whereas, Craig has devoted the last 20 years to the Department of Transportation as the Scheduling Administrator for the PCEMS and Primavera Software, which he has guided through construction projects worth billions of dollars to completion; and,

Whereas, Craig Miller has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with wife, Dyann, daughters, Jenny and Andrea, and friends, as well as the day-to-day giving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize Craig's contributions to the state of South Dakota during his many years of employment with state government:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 1, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, family, and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his years of outstanding public service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
